Filip Haag is a distinguished Swiss artist renowned for his evocative and expressive paintings. Working from his studio at PROGR in Bern, Haag masterfully combines texture, color, and form to create works that invite introspection and dialogue. With a career spanning decades, Haag's work has been exhibited in prestigious galleries and collections across Europe, captivating audiences with his unique ability to blend the contemporary with the timeless. His art often explores themes of identity, transformation, and the interplay between the seen and unseen. Haag's commitment to his craft and his passion for pushing artistic boundaries have earned him recognition as one of Switzerland's most compelling contemporary painters.
