Please note that the programme is subject to change; participants will always be informed in advance of any updates.

The programme is led by Martina Zatorska, art historian and art advisor, whose many years in Paris have shaped a deep, lived understanding of the city and its museums. The journey is further enriched by encounters with other inspiring people who will share their knowledge and experience along the way.

The programme includes entrance tickets to all museums, exhibitions, and cultural venues, expert-guided tours led by an art historian and invited specialists, private transfers between programme venues, programme insurance, and organised group lunches, coffee breaks, and dinners in carefully selected venues. Travel, accommodation, and restaurant costs are not included in the programme fee.

We will gladly share our recommendations to help you plan your stay in Paris.
